SUPERIORIBVS aliquot annis quon esset Bononia, Antoni uir optime, atq̃ ornatissime, Verborum Latinorum ex uariis Authoribus Epitomen mihi ipsi cōficere aggressus sum: et eorū maxime quibus Ciceronem Latinæ eloquentiæ ipso Iulio Cæsare attestante, principem atq̃ inuentorem aut nunquā, aut summū semel bisue usum fuisse ex illius quæ ad hanc diem extant monumentis cuius uidere licet. Et quia ē manū Marii Nicoli hominis magna diligentia, magna eruditione præditi infinita prope dicam Ciceroniana segetis messe metentis spica quædam exciderant, atq̃ elapsæ erant, ego uelut paupercula Maobitis illa, reliquias studiose collegi, atq̃ in manipulos suæ optima quasi Appendicem quædam redelegi. Cuius quidem operis (ut alios omittam) probatissimi mihi testes sunt excellenti ingenio, doctrina, probitate uiri, Romulus c. nascus, M. Antonius Flaminius, Adamus Fumanus. In quo nihil prorsus nos suerfuisse (quis enim id effugerit?) affirmare uix possumus; cum cuiusuis hominis sit necesse falli, decipi, errare, opinione labi: multa tamē à nobis consulto prætermissa fuisse non inficiamur. Eum laborem postmodum aliis studiis impeditus ac distentus intermisi: cum tamen per id temporis socius ac consors tam longi laboris esset Ioannes Chrysostomus germanus frater meus: cuius Libri tres de Origine Urobiorum siue Cenomanorum ad Petrum Eembum, et Panegyricus ad Carolum. V. Imp. elegantissime scripti in publicum emanarunt. Eam tui Epitomen, atq̃ Appendicem paucos abhinc dies minusculum quolecunque est uolens ac libens misi. Id et tua in me maxima merita, et singularis ac propensa ergi me beneuolentia, et (ut ex animo dicam) studiorum quædam similitudo flagrabant. Neq̃ enim (si uera fateri uolumus) forensibus diuotaxat causis actuantis, uersandisq̃, tanquā in pistrino tibi uiuentium sis, adeo addi flus et ut in cæteris artibus quæ libero homine dignæ sunt non iniuria cōpouos exaltari possis. Sed Lareconsultum ita diu hominibusq̃ approbantibus summa cū laude, atq̃ integritate agis: ut tamen solutior humanitatis, omniumq̃ bonarum artium, cælestis deniq̃ ac Christianæ Philosophiæ studiis tanta diligentia serio iudicio ita ut cum maxime operam nauas: ut cum Lareconsulti Lucisconsultissimus, cum iis qui humanioribus ac liberalibus licet apprimè eruditi sunt humanissimus, cum Theologi Diuinarum rerum optimus maximusq̃, cum tuis deniq̃ Ralscis et quissimus cuius, ac iustitia peritissimus numereris. Cæterum huiusce mei minusculi teonuitatem cum tua humanitate, tum etiam mea ergi te obseruantia ac pietate com pergabis: quærum hoc apud te perpetuum ac dulce monimentum extare opto. Quod si pro tua incredibili studioſos omnes charitate in uulgas proſiterit: atq; in manus hominum uenerit: tuæ partes erunt, ut quam bonas cauſas optimus patronus optime agis, amici quoq; amantiffimi tui ſtudioſiſſimi ꝑ cauſam amanter ac ſtudioſe ſuſci-pias, tractes, iudicaris. Sed quod a te eos Authores ex quorum fontibus hæc hauimus attinet, minime uereor ne tibi admirationem moueat: ꝑ nonnullos ſecuti ſuerimus in quibus ſuccum illum, & quaſi ſanguinem intorruptæ Latinæ, & (quod capx eſt) perennem ac perpetuam illam tum ſimplicium, tum collocatorum uerborum, totius deniq; ſtruſturæ concinnitatem numerumꝑ deſiderari nemini unquam erua-dito uirò dubium fuit. Optime enim omnium noſtri, alios ita legendos eſſe (de ueteribus qui imitatione digni exiſtuntur loquor) ut quicquid ſcripſerint, ſine ulla dubitatione, ut pote non niſi bene latine, ornate, dilucide, appoſue dictam, atq; omni ex parte expolitam, arripendum, atq; in propria ſcripta transferendum ſit. Cuius generis ſunt poſt Ciceronem, ac Iulium Cæſarem, quos ueluti Antefignatos ac Reges in Eloquentium acie ac ſolio poſteritas omnis uenerata iure optimo collocauit; Terentius, Corn. Cæſus, Columella; itemꝑ Catullus, Virgilius, Tibullus, Horatius: & ſi quis alius ita par atq; æqualis exiſtit: aut ſi qui proxime ad eos acce-dunt. Quales ex altera parte habendi ſunt & dicendi, Q. Cicero, A. Hirſcius, Cornificius Rhetoricorum ad Herennium author, Corn. Nepos, P. Syrus Mimorū ſcriptor, Aſconius Perſianus, Titus Liuius: ex altera autem parte Propertius, Ouidius, Gratius, Germanicus Cæſar, Corn. Seuerus, Peto Albinouanus, Manilius, Seneca Tragicus. Alios uero ita in manus ſumendos eſſe, ut lectionem ad eorum ſcripta non delectu uerborum, ac totius ſcriptionis tanquam iudex adhibeas: ac non niſi ſui ac neceſſitate coactus eorum ſtylum, ac ſcribendi rationem imiteris.

Nam & præter plurimarum rerum nomina quæ nuſquam præter quæ in eorū char-tis inueniuntur, alia quoꝑ neceſſario ab eis ſumenda quis non uidet? quod iis qui de græco in latinum conuertunt uel maxime neceſſarium eſſe nemo niſi proſus rudis, atq; inexercitatus ignorat. Quæ ſi quis quibuſdam in locis ubi uerbum uerbo red-dendum eſt, aut nimia latini ſermonis religione ſilentio præterire, aut per circuitio-nem explicare uoluerit, nec ille mihi imprudens, & cuius iudicio minime ſtandum ſit iudicandus erit, & quidem (ut de me loquar) ut aliter credam nix adduci poſſum: Ciceronem ipſum ſi Architeſturam, aut Aſtrologiam, aut Geographiam, aut Natu-ralem hiftoriam Latinæ conſuetudini tradere uoluſſet, aliis quæ Vitruuii, & Hy-gini, & Pomponii Melæ, & Plinii rerum uocabulis uti poſuiſſe. Vt interim taceam, Medicinæ præcepta nec elegantius à quoquam quàm à Celſo, nec de rebus ruſti-cis ornatiſus quicquam quàm à Columella iam dictum eſt præciꝑi poſuiſſe. Atenim di-cet aliquis, ſi cuius uisus de illis qui poſt perfectam illam atq; omnibus muneris abſolutam Ciceronis & Virgilii ætatem floruerunt à mortuis excitatus adeſſet præ-ſens, is præcui dubio ea quæ tibi nunc ueluti noua, ac non ſatis lucina uidentur, ab ornatissimis & grauissimis illis Auctoribus usurpata, atq; ab illis sumpta luce clari-rius demonstraret. Enimvero ut de hac re non magno pre pugno (nam bonam partem eos bene ornateq; dixisse quis in dubium controuersumq; uocet?) atq; id fortasse non negem, ita illud, quoquo modo res se habet, satis uel eorum proprio testimonio affirmare non dubitem: illius uetatis ingenia decreuisse: & in deterius quotidie corruptā Eloquentiam sese tulisse: & noua minimeq; necessaria parturisse uerba: nouas uem uerborum significationes: nouas locutiones: nouas construtiones, ac collocationes.

 Et ne longum sit, ut ipsorum uerbis utar, totum dicendi genus ab illis mutatū esse: & eos sibi ultra quā oportebat indulgisse. Itaq; ut huiusce rei tandem aliquando finē faciam, si ita res cogat, si eligendi optio mihi detur: malim Plauti, M. Catonis, Sala-lustii, Varronis, Lucretii uerbis loqui, quam uicis alicubi priscis, & horridioribus, adde etiam si placet, impolitis, ubiq; tamen ita latinis, ita incorruptis, ut nihil possit supra, quā illorum aut nouis, aut plane suspectis, atq; incertis, an ex illo nitidissime Latina puritatis fonte profluxerint: utrum ab illis candidissimi atq; acerrimi in-dicti uiris fuerint recepta, an repulsiata. Posremo in notandis hoc in Volumine Auctorum nominibus exemplum uenerandæ uetustatis Terentiani codicis non sine causa secuti sumus: quem Petrus Bembo Cardinalis utr in omni omnium uirum tum, doctrinarum, dicendi genere præstantissimus, quem honoris amplitudinisq; causa nomino, nobis exhibuit: in quo singula Fabularum personæ una tantummodo littera græca distinxit ac notatæ uidentur. Vale, & nos ut facis ama.

The first of these is the fact that the system is not self-sufficient. It requires a constant supply of raw materials and a constant supply of labour. The second is the fact that the system is not self-sufficient in the production of capital goods. The third is the
 not self-sufficient in the production of consumer goods. The fourth is the
 production of services.

The fifth is the fact that the system is not self-sufficient in the production of capital goods. The sixth is the fact that the system is not self-sufficient in the production of consumer goods. The seventh is the fact that
 sufficient in the production of services. The eighth is the fact that
 sufficient in the production of capital goods.
